Michael,

I wanted to ensure you were aware of this - once we have had a chance to review in detail, we will likely follow up to ascertain if this addresses the Agency's concerns.

As a followup, thanks for coming to Fort Lauderdale. The members appreciate it. Sorry the trip was abruptly shortened but we understand the circumstances.

Proposition 65 - Notice of Amendment to Clear and Reasonable Warnings - Alternative Signal Words for Pesticide Exposure Warnings

The Office of Environmental Health Hazard Assessment (OEHHA) has adopted an amendment to Clear and Reasonable Warnings Regulations to modify the safe-harbor warning content for on-product Proposition 65 consumer product warnings for exposures to listed chemicals in pesticides. The amendment allows manufacturers to use alternative signal words in the warnings where they are required under Federal law.
